

Read through the rest of the story and try to answer the questions at the end. There is an answer sheet to help you start each of your answers.

From Mrs Yeandle

A coach load of men ran up.

Toads! Turn back.

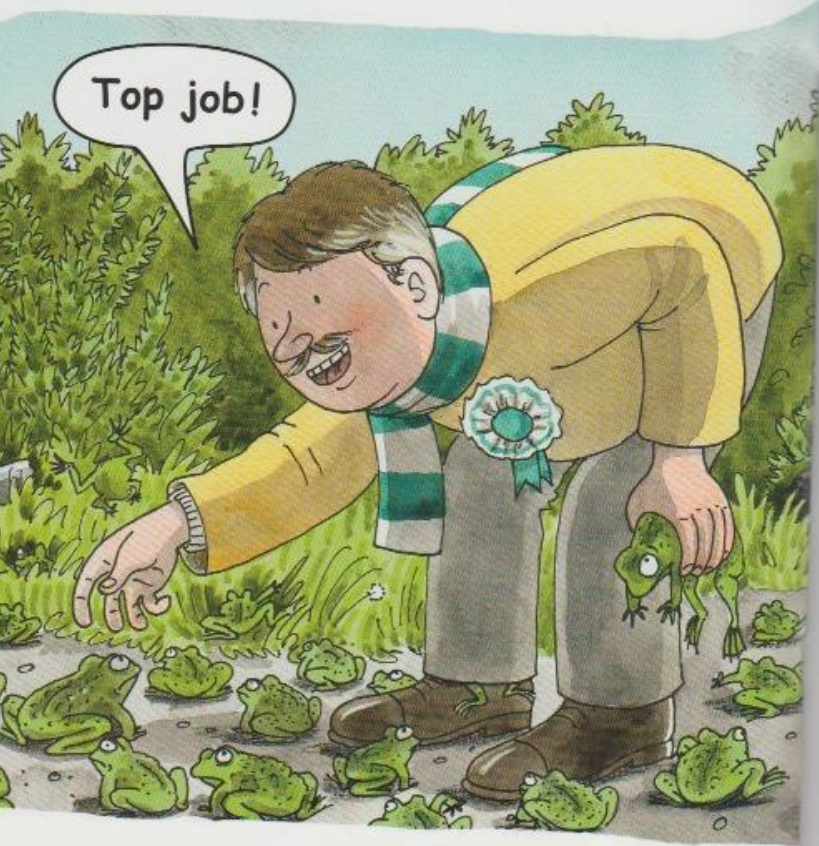

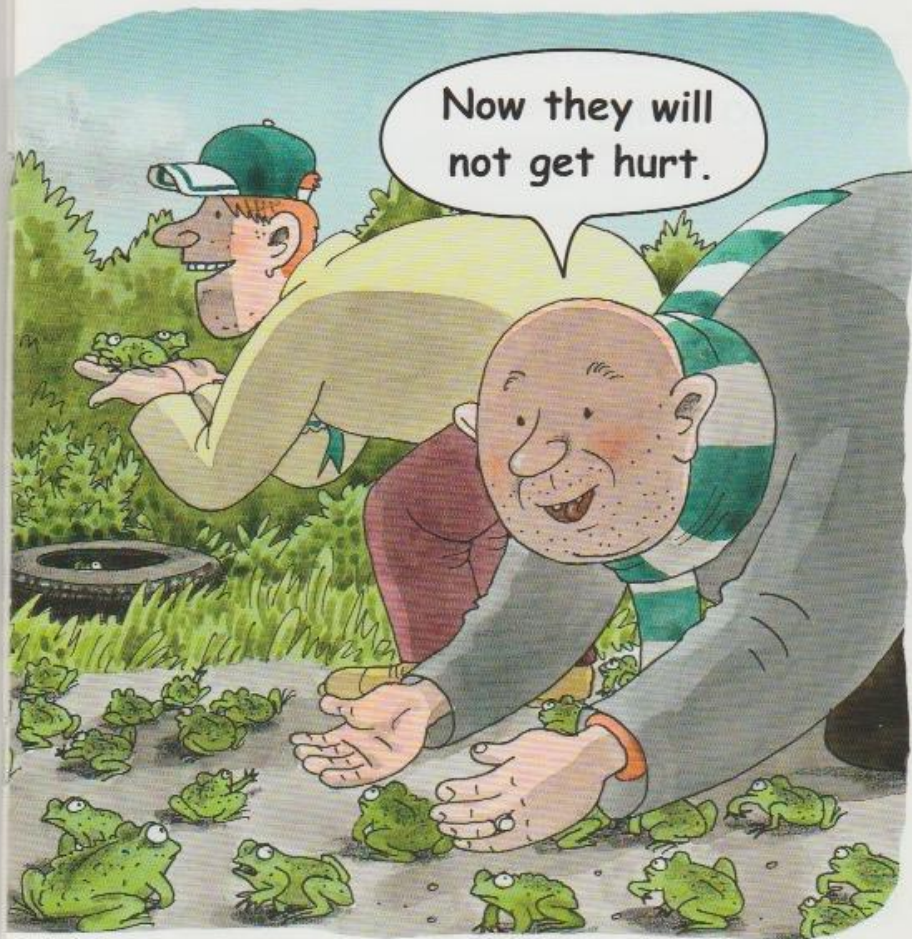

We can pick up
toads with you.

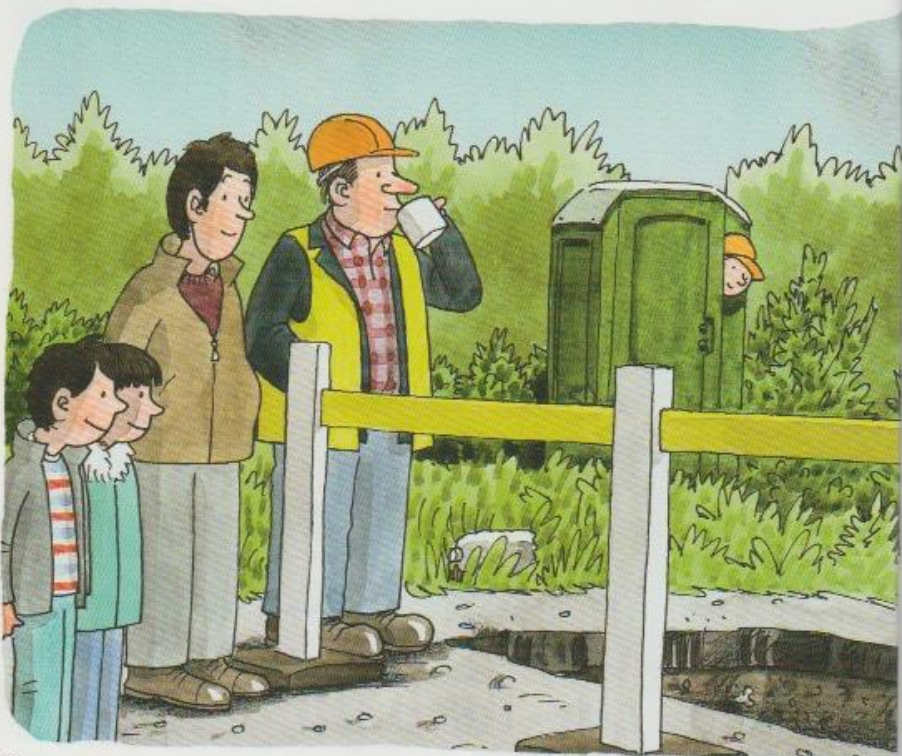

e men ran to pick up the toads.

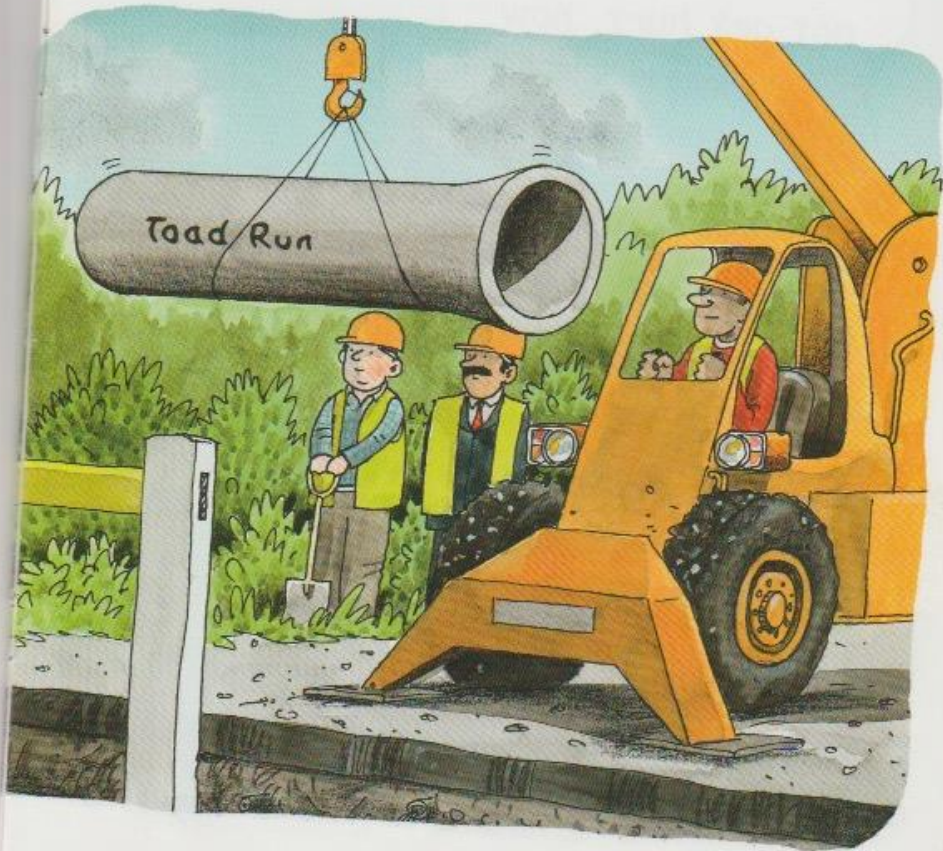

The road was shut.
Men dug it up.

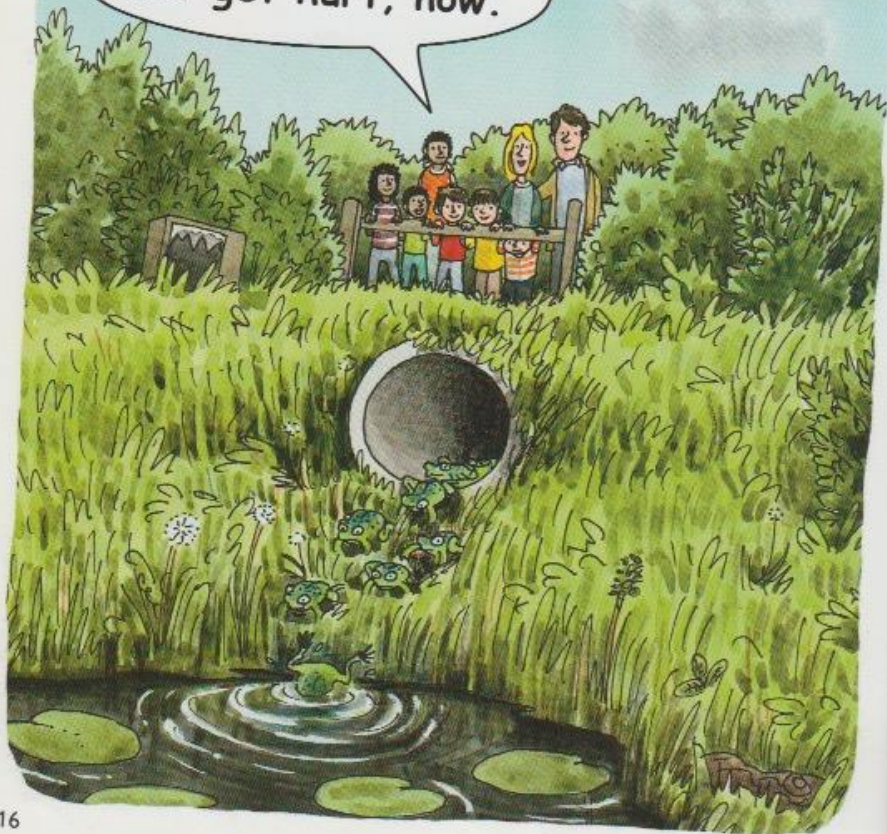

They put a toad run in the road.

The toads will not get hurt, now.

Reading Vipers

Vocabulary
Infer Predict
Explain
Retrieve
Sequence

- V What is a 'toad run'?
- I How do you think they all felt at the end of the story? Why?
- P Do you think the toads are safer? Why?
- E Explain why you think the toads were crossing the road.
- R What do the men from the coach do?
- S Fill in the missing words on the answer sheet to summarise this part of the story.

Toads on the Road answer sheet 2

V A toad run is _____

---

I I think they all felt _____ at the end of the story, because _____

---

P I think the toads _____ safer because _____

---

E I think the toads were crossing the road

---

R The men from the coach _____

---

S The men on the coach pick up the _____ Builders dig up the _____

They put in a _____ so the frogs can go under the road.